- (a) The Deed Administrators and the Administrators undertake to comply with the terms of the Budget and Oversight Protocol from the date it is agreed between the relevant parties until the later of (i) the End Date and (ii) the date on which the Administration terminates.

(b) Subject to (c) below, the Deed Company, the Deed Administrators and the Administrators undertake to Holdco and its subsidiaries to provide all such information as Holdco or any of its subsidiaries may reasonably request and which is within the possession of the Deed Company, the Deed Administrators or the Administrators (as applicable), and which is not already in the possession of Holdco or its subsidiaries, in relation to any actual, threatened, or potential litigation, arbitration, or other disputes or claims that may be brought by or against the Deed Company and/or any or all of the Related DOCA Companies, including (without limitation) any investigations conducted in connection with or evaluating the prospects of any of the foregoing, subject in each case to arrangements satisfactory to the Deed Administrators, the Administrators, and Holdco (each acting reasonably) to preserve the confidentiality and legal privilege of such information.

(c) Paragraph (b) shall not require the Deed Company, the Deed Administrators, or the Administrators to disclose any information if and to the extent that:

(i) to do so would breach:

- (A) the procedural or substantive rules of any relevant court or arbitral tribunal (including for the avoidance of doubt rules relating to the collateral use of documents provided pursuant to proceedings and/or disclosure and/or the provision of documents obtained pursuant to litigation to third parties);
- (B) any order made by a relevant court or tribunal; or
- (C) any undertakings provided to the parties to any proceedings or to a relevant court or tribunal, provided that the Deed Company, the Deed Administrators and/or the Administrators (as applicable) shall take such steps as may be reasonable in the context of the relevant proceeding or the relevant law, regulation, rule, order, award, direction, or undertaking to obtain the consent of any court, tribunal, or party whose consent to such disclosure is required to avoid a breach;

(ii) the provision of such information would:

- (A) be materially prejudicial to the interests of the Deed Company, the Deed Administrators and/or the Administrators;
- (B) contravene any relevant law or regulation (civil or criminal) which prohibits its disclosure and does not provide for it to be disclosed with consent (as contemplated by paragraph (i) above); or
- (C) breach the Deed Administrators' or Administrators' statutory duties, in each case as certified in writing to Holdco by the Deed Company, the Deed Administrators and/or the Administrators (as applicable); or

- (iii) to do so would result in material cost or expense, in which case the Deed Company, the Deed Administrators and/or the Administrators (as applicable) will negotiate with Holdco in good faith with a view to agreeing how such cost or expense should be met.

5.8 Deed Administrators' indemnity and lien

In addition to any rights the Deed Administrators may have under the Regulations or at law, the Deed Administrators will be indemnified out of the Property of the Deed Company for:

- (a) their remuneration and all Costs, fees and expenses incurred by them and payable in accordance with Clause 5.6 (Remuneration and costs), the Regulations, or otherwise at law;
- (b) all liabilities incurred and payments made by them, including liabilities falling within clause 5.5 (No personal liability); and
- (c) all actions, claims, suits, causes of action, arbitrations, debts, costs, demands, verdicts and judgments at law or in equity or arising under any statute that are commenced against, incurred by or made against them and all related costs, charges and expenses, in connection with this Deed, and their role as Administrators, Related Administrators and Related Deed Administrators, and they have a first and paramount lien over the Property of the Deed Company as security for this indemnity except where such loss, damage, claim, liability or expense is caused by fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct (including breach of this Deed).

5.9 Survival of indemnity and lien

The indemnity and lien set out in clause 5.8 (Deed Administrators' indemnity and lien) shall take effect on and from the Commencement Date and shall endure without limitation as to time for the benefit of the Deed Administrators notwithstanding:

- (a) the termination of this Deed for any reason whatsoever;
- (b) the removal or replacement of the Deed Administrators; or
- (c) the invalidity of or any defect whatsoever in the appointment of the Deed Administrators.

5.10 Nature of indemnity

- (a) The Deed Administrators' right of indemnity conferred by this clause has priority over the Group Creditor Claims or Group Creditors generally.

- (b) The Deed Administrators are entitled to exercise their right of indemnity conferred by this clause whether or not they have paid or satisfied Admitted Group Claims.

5.11 Reporting

Except as required by the law (including the Regulations) or the Budget and Oversight Protocol, the Deed Administrators are not required to report to Deed Company Creditors or Admitted Group Creditors, however the Deed Administrators may, in their absolute discretion, report to Deed Company Creditors or Admitted Group Creditors during the Deed Period at such times as the Deed Administrators consider appropriate and on matters which the Deed Administrators consider ought to be brought to the attention of the Deed Company Creditors or Admitted Group Creditors.

5.12 Deed Administrators' resignation and replacement

Any Deed Administrator may resign at any time by giving not less than 14 days' prior written notice to the Deed Company unless that resignation would result in there being no remaining Deed Administrator in which event the Deed Administrator must:

- (a) convene a meeting of the Deed Company Creditors in accordance with clause 15 (Meetings of Creditors) for the purpose of nominating a replacement deed administrator;
- (b) assign to a replacement deed administrator nominated by the Deed Company Creditors the Deed Administrators' rights, title and benefit under this Deed; and
- (c) do all things reasonably necessary to effect the assignment referred to in clause (b) above.

6 CLAIMS DETERMINATION PROCESS

6.1 Application of the Claims Determination Process

- (a) This Deed will establish the Claims Determination Process.
- (b) Any assessment, decision or action undertaken in connection with the Claims Determination Process will be an assessment, decision or action of the Deed Administrators. For the avoidance of doubt, any assessment, decision or action undertaken by the Deed Administrators in connection with the Claims Determination Process will not constitute an assessment, decision or action of the Administrators, the Related Administrators or the Related Deed Administrators.
- (c) This Deed constitutes the entire agreement between the Group Creditors in relation to the treatment of Group Creditor Claims against the Deed Company and / or the relevant Related DOCA Company and the Group Creditor's ability to challenge such treatment. Notwithstanding that the Deed Company and each Related DOCA Company will continue in administration following the Commencement Date, each Group Creditor agrees that the terms of the Claims Determination Process will regulate its rights against the Deed Company and/or each Related DOCA Company (as relevant) and the Deed Administrators, the Administrators, the Related Deed Administrators and the Related Deed Administrators insofar as such right relates to actions undertaken in connection with this Deed and/or the Related DOCAs. If there is an inconsistency between the Claims Determination Process and a Group Creditor's rights pursuant to chapters 9 (Functions of Administrator), 10 (Ending Administration), 11 (Replacing Administrator) and 12 (General) of Part 1 (Administration) of the Regulations and supporting provisions of the Regulations, the terms of the Claims Determination Process shall prevail.

- (d) For the purposes of this Clause 6 (Claims Determination Process), only Clauses 6.2 (Submission of Proofs of Debt) through to 6.5 (Claims Admission Notice) shall apply to AFF Waived Claims. If any Group Creditor Claim which is the subject of an AFF Rolled Up Election is rejected in whole or in part, the adjudication of such claim shall proceed in accordance with the AFF CTA.

6.2 Submission of Proofs of Debt

- (a) Following the Commencement Date, the Deed Administrators shall assess any Proofs of Debt received from Group Creditors in the Administration and the Related Administrations and shall determine pursuant to this Clause 6 (Claims Determination Process) whether and in what amount those claims should be admitted to proof for the purpose of receiving DOCA Creditor Entitlements.
- (b) Subject to (c) below, the Deed Administrators will treat each Proof of Debt as if it was submitted by the relevant Group Creditor in respect of this Deed, and, if the claims relates to one or more other Group DOCA Companies, the administration of the relevant Group DOCA Company.
- (c) For the purposes of this Clause 6 and without prejudice to Clause 8.2(c) (Calculation of DOCA Creditor Entitlements) the Deed Administrators will treat each Proof of Debt filed in respect of a Capital Markets Claim as if it was submitted by the relevant Capital Markets Trustee of the relevant Capital Markets Claim, and not by a Certificate Holder.

6.3 Review of claims

- (a) The Deed Administrators will assess the Proofs of Debt and determine, among other things:
 - (i) whether to admit each Proof of Debt for the purpose of receiving DOCA Creditor Entitlements and if so, the quantum to be attributed to each Proof of Debt; and
 - (ii) the validity and value of any claimed Security Interest.
- (b) The Deed Administrators will review each Proof of Debt in accordance with the following sections of Schedule 5 to the Regulations: 2, 3, 5 - 8, 11, 13, 15 - 17, 19, 22 - 24 and 26 - 28.
- (c) For the purposes of (b) above, the following words used in the Regulations will be taken to have the following meanings unless the situation otherwise requires:

“adjudicator” means an adjudicator appointed in accordance with Clauses 6.7(a) and 6.7(b) of this Deed;

“administration” or “Insolvency Proceedings” means this Deed and the Related DOCAs;

“Company” means the Deed Company and the Related DOCA Companies;

“creditor” means a Group Creditor;

“Office-holder” means the Deed Administrators; and “relevant date” means the Appointment Date.

- (d) The Deed Administrators shall, for the purposes of determining whether or not to admit a Proof of Debt:
- (i) apply the rules of common law and equity of law of England applicable to the admission of creditor claims in the insolvent estate of a company including, for the avoidance of doubt, the rule against double proof, the rule in Cherry v Boulbee and any non-competition or analogous agreement; and
 - (ii) consider whether any conditions and/or reservations of rights were attached to a Proof of Debt, and whether such conditions and/or reservations require the non-admission of the Proof of Debt as a proof of debt, or whether such conditions and/or reservations are ineffective in law without effect upon the admissibility of the Proof of Debt.
- (e) Each Group Creditor shall use its reasonable endeavours to promptly provide the Deed Administrators with any information relating to its Group Creditor Claim that the Deed Administrators may reasonably request.
- (f) In the event of inconsistency between this clause 6.3 and any other provision of this Deed, the other provision shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

6.4 Bar Date

- (a) Subject to Clause 6.4(b), if a Deed Company Creditor:
- (i) submits or has submitted a Proof of Debt in respect of a Deed Company Claim following the Bar Date; or
 - (ii) fails to submit a Proof of Debt in respect of a Deed Company Claim at all,
- ((i) and (ii) both constituting a “Barred Claim”), that Deed Company Creditor will be deemed to have abandoned its Deed Company Claim against the Deed Company and its Deed Company Claim will accordingly be extinguished.
- (b) Notwithstanding (a)(i) above, the Deed Administrators may admit any Proof of Debt submitted after the Bar Date in their absolute discretion and the relevant claim will be considered by the Deed Administrators as if it was not a Barred Claim for the purposes of determining rights or entitlements under this Deed.

6.5 Claims Admission Notice

The Deed Administrators will notify each Group Creditor by the DOCA Claims Notification Date by means of a formal notice of admission or rejection, as the case may be, of (i) their Group Creditor Claim; (ii) their Unsecured Group Creditor Claim; and (iii) (if applicable) the validity and value of any Security Interest claimed by that Group Creditor, in each case in its Proof of Debt (a “Claims Admission Notice”). The Deed Administrators will send the Claims Admission Notice to the address provided in the Proof of Debt relating to the relevant Group Creditor Claim, via the NMC Creditor Portal or to any email address notified to the Deed Administrators.

6.6 Rejected Claims

- (a) This Clause 6.6 shall not apply to any claims subject to arbitration pursuant to Clause 6.9 (Arbitration Claims).
- (b) Where the Deed Administrators give notice pursuant to a Claims Admission Notice that they reject all or part of a Group Creditor Claim, or reject the validity or value of a Security Interest claimed by a Group Creditor, the Deed Administrators shall prepare a statement summarising their reasons for the rejection, which shall be provided to the Group Creditor at the same time as the Claims Admission Notice. Subject to paragraph (c) below:
 - (i) a creditor will have 12 Business Days from the date of receipt of such statement of reasons to notify the Deed Administrators in writing that it requires its rejected Group Creditor Claim to be determined by an independent adjudicator in accordance with Clause 6.7 (Adjudication); and
 - (ii) if a Group Creditor fails to notify the Deed Administrators in writing within the time period referred to above that it requires an independent adjudicator to determine its Group Creditor Claim, the Group Creditor shall be deemed to have accepted the Deed Administrators’ decision as set out in the Claims Admission Notice.
- (c) A Group Creditor asserting an Undetermined Security Interest and who wishes to have its Group Creditor Claim determined by an independent adjudicator in accordance with Clause 6.7 (Adjudication) must either:
 - (i) elect (pursuant to Clause 6.10(a)(ii)) that the Determined Value of their Security Interest shall also be determined in accordance with Clause 6.7 (Adjudication); or
 - (ii) first determine the Determined Value of their asserted Undetermined Security Interest in accordance with paragraphs (b)(i), (b)(ii), (c)(i), or (c)(ii) (as applicable) of Clause 6.10 (Security Interests), before it will be eligible to notify the Deed Administrators that it requires its wholly or partly rejected Group Creditor Claim to be determined in accordance with Clause 6.7 (Adjudication), in which case the 12 Business Day period referred to at paragraph (b)(i) above shall start to run from the date on which the Determined Value of the Security Interest is determined.

6.7 Adjudication

- (a) The Deed Administrators will use reasonable endeavours to appoint an adjudicator to determine the Adjudication Claim as soon as reasonably possible following the receipt of a notification under Clause 6.6(b) or 6.6(c) above, taking into account the availability of adjudicators at the relevant time.
- (b) The adjudicator will be selected by the Deed Administrator from a pre-determined panel of 3 judges or former judges, from, but not limited to, English and UAE law jurisdictions, who will act as experts, rather than arbitrators.
- (c) Hearings can be conducted and determinations can be made by any one of the adjudicators, if there are more than one. Hearings will take place by video conference, or in person in the ADGM or in London, at the discretion of the adjudicator provided that where hearings are taking place in person, the adjudicator shall have due regard to any applicable COVID 19 regulations and shall provide the relevant creditor with reasonable notice of the hearing. The adjudicator will set the procedural timetable for each dispute.
- (d) Group Creditor Claims or disputed Security Interests with a claimed value of USD 1,000,000 or less will be determined on paper, without an oral hearing and without cross examination or disclosure. The relevant Group Creditor will be entitled to file one round of written submissions and supporting written evidence not longer than 5 pages, after which the Deed Company will be entitled to file one round of responsive written submissions and supporting written evidence. The adjudicator will not be obliged to give reasons for the decision.
- (e) Group Creditor Claims or disputed Security Interest with a claimed value of over USD 1,000,000 and up to USD 25,000,000 will be determined on paper, with an option for the adjudicator, in his/her sole discretion, to elect to hear oral evidence (including cross examination) and/or submissions limited to issues specified by the adjudicator at a short hearing (of no more than 3 days), to take place in accordance with Clause 6.6(b) or (c) (Rejected Claims). Regardless of whether the claim is to be determined on paper or at a hearing, written submissions not exceeding 10 pages shall be filed by the Group Creditor and then the Deed Company, after which the parties must file a preliminary list of issues to be determined by the adjudicator, which will preferably be a joint agreed list. The parties may make requests for disclosure of specific documents or documents in a narrow category or categories, relating to a particular factual issue in the list of issues to be determined. Disclosure requests which are not agreed shall be determined by the adjudicator. The parties will then have an opportunity to file one round of written evidence, accompanied by a short summation of their case, not longer than 10 pages unless such amount is varied by the adjudicator. If necessary, the parties should then file an updated list of issues. The adjudicator shall give brief reasons for the decision.

- (f) Group Creditor Claims or disputed Security Interests with a claimed value of over USD 25,000,000 will be determined at or after an oral hearing at which the adjudicator may permit cross examination in addition to oral submissions. The procedure for filing submissions and evidence shall be the same as the procedure set out in Clause 6.7(e) above. The adjudicator shall give comparatively fuller reasons for the decision than they would have given for a decision relating to a matter in Clause 6.7(e). The adjudicator shall have the discretion to vary any procedural element described in this clause (f) as they see fit.
- (g) The adjudicator's decision on any matter referred to the adjudicator shall be final and binding, and, in so far as the law allows, shall not be capable of being appealed.
- (h) The costs of the adjudication will be within the discretion of the adjudicator save that the adjudicator will be guided by the principle that costs follow the event as to the incidence of costs and, as regards the amount of costs, subject always to the considerations of fairness and proportionality of the amount of costs to the complexity of the issues at stake and the importance of those issues to the parties to be applied by the adjudicator. In exercising his or her discretion the adjudicator shall have regard to the principles applied by the Court in respect of costs orders from time to time.

6.8 Adjudication Claims that may be determined by the Court

- (a) If a Group Creditor Claim and/or the value placed by a Group Creditor on a claimed Security Interest has been rejected by the Deed Administrators pursuant to Clause 6.5 (Claims Admission Notice) and the Group Creditor:
 - (i) is a regulator; and/or
 - (ii) is the subject of an Offensive Claim, the Group Creditor or the regulator or the Deed Administrators and/or the Deed Company (as the case may be) will be entitled (but not required) to issue proceedings in the Court for the determination of their Group Creditor Claims, within 12 Business Days of:

 - (iii) with respect to (i) above, receipt of a Claims Admission Notice; and
 - (iv) with respect to (ii) above, the date on which the Administrators have notified a Group Creditor of their intent to pursue an Offensive Claim against them pursuant to Clause 6.11 (Offensive claims against creditors).
- (b) So far as the regulator is entitled to rely on the mandatory jurisdiction of another court, this provision shall be read as including reference to that court. If either the Group Creditor or the regulator or the Deed Administrators or the Deed Company issues such proceedings, the process for adjudication set out in Clause 6.7 (Adjudication) above shall not apply.
- (c) For the avoidance of doubt, this Clause 6.8 (Adjudication Claims that may be determined by the Court) shall not apply with respect to Arbitration Claims.

6.9 Arbitration Claims

If the Group Creditor Claim is the subject of a pending arbitration proceeding (“Arbitration Claim”), the Deed Administrators will accept (and the relevant Group Creditor shall be bound by such acceptance) the value of the relevant Group Creditor Claim and of any claimed Security Interest as determined by the relevant arbitrators for the purposes of calculating the Group Creditor’s DOCA Creditor Entitlements pursuant to Clause 8.2 (Calculation of DOCA Creditor Entitlements) and Clause 12 (Post-Restructuring Litigation Recoveries) the process for adjudication set out in Clauses 6.7 (Adjudication) and 6.10 (Security) above shall not apply. For the purpose of this clause, a pending arbitration proceeding is one in respect of which the reference for arbitration has been issued before the Record Date.

6.10 Security Interests

- (a) In order to determine a Group Creditor’s EPM Entitlements, the Deed Administrators require certainty as to the value (if any) of any Security Interest asserted by that Group Creditor. Without prejudice to Clause 9.7 (Postponement of Holdback Claims), a Group Creditor asserting a Security Interest will therefore be a Holdback Creditor unless and until the Determined Value of its Security Interest has been determined in accordance with this Clause 6.10.
- (b) If a Group Creditor asserts that it holds a Security Interest in respect of a Group Creditor Claim then, subject to paragraph (c) below, a Group Creditor may (in its sole discretion):
 - (i) exercise any right that it has to enforce, realise, or otherwise deal with their Undetermined Security Interest in accordance with its terms (“Enforcement”), in which case the Determined Value of the Security Interest shall be the value realised by the Group Creditor from such Enforcement;
 - (ii) within 12 Business Days of receipt of its Claims Admission Notice, elect to have its security valued in accordance with Clause 6.7 (Adjudication), in which case the Determined Value of the Security Interest shall be the value determined in accordance with Clause 6.7 (Adjudication). Any Group Creditor so electing must give a binding undertaking, on terms satisfactory to the Deed Administrators (acting reasonably) that it shall be bound by the adjudicator’s determination and (in particular, though without limitation) shall not seek to recover any greater amount in respect of its Security Interest than the Determined Value, whether by way of Enforcement or otherwise; or
 - (iii) with the consent of the other parties thereto, enter into a Security Settlement Agreement, in which case the Determined Value of the Security Interest shall be as set out in the Security Settlement Agreement.
- (c) Paragraph (b) shall not apply where:

- (i) the value of a Group Creditor's Security Interest is to be determined by the Court pursuant to Clause 6.8 (Adjudication Claims that may be determined by the Court), in which case the Determined Value of the Security Interest shall be the value attributed to the Security Interest by the Court; or
 - (ii) if the value of a Group Creditor's Security Interest is to be determined by arbitration pursuant to Clause 6.9 (Arbitration Claims), in which case the Determined Value the Security Interest shall be the value attributed to the Security Interest by the arbitrator.
- (d) For the avoidance of doubt:
- (i) neither this Deed nor any Related DOCA shall:
 - (A) prevent a Secured Creditor (including, without limitation, a Secured Creditor that did not vote in favour of the Section 65 Resolution) from realising or otherwise dealing with its legal, valid and binding Security Interest prior to or following the Restructuring Effective Date, and the alternative means of determining the Determined Value of Security Interests provided for in this Deed are in addition to such rights as a Secured Creditor may have; and
 - (B) prevent a DOCA Company, the Deed Administrators, the Administrators, Related Deed Administrators or Related Administrators from exercising any rights that they would otherwise have in relation to a Secured Creditor's enforcement pursuant to (A) above;
 - (ii) no Holdco Facilities Commitments shall be issued to a Holdback Creditor while it is a Holdback Creditor (including, without limitation, because it asserts an Undetermined Security Interest), and such Holdco Facilities Commitments will instead be held in the Holding Period Trust in accordance with Clause 9.5 (Distribution of Holdco Facilities Commitments).

6.11 Offensive claims against creditors

- (a) Except in circumstances where an Offensive Claim against a Group Creditor has already been issued by the Record Date, the Administrators may, by the Record Date:
 - (i) notify each Group Creditor of whether the Administrators intend to pursue an Offensive Claim against a Group Creditor;
 - (ii) provide the relevant Group Creditor with a concise statement of the nature of the Offensive Claim and its value within a reasonable time following the Record Date; and

- (iii) notify the relevant Group Creditor that it considers that all or part of its Group Creditor Claim may be liable to being set off against the Offensive Claim.
- (b) Only Offensive Claims commenced or which the Administrators have stated on or prior to the Record Date they intend to commence will affect the amount of a Group Creditor's DOCA Creditor Entitlements.
- (c) Failure to notify a Group Creditor of an Offensive Claim in accordance with Clause 6.11(a) will not prevent the Administrators or the Deed Company from pursuing an Offensive Claim at a later point in time.

6.12 Determination of Offensive Claims

Where:

- (a) any amount has been ordered by a relevant court or other body against a Group Creditor in respect of an Offensive Claim, then following the expiration of any appeal or right to appeal; or
- (b) the Deed Administrators agree to settle an Offensive Claim with the relevant claim counterparty, then following the execution of an agreement documenting the terms of the settlement (including the amount of such settlement), such amount and interest due to the Deed Company, the Administrators, the Deed Administrators or another Group DOCA Company in respect of that amount and interest, if any, shall be set off against such Group Creditors' Group Creditor Claim and the creditor's rights to receive DOCA Creditor Entitlements in respect of that claim will be discharged and reduced accordingly.

6.13 Abandoned claims

A Group Creditor (other than a Group Creditor subject to clause 6.9 (Arbitration Claims)) will have abandoned, and will be taken for all purposes to have abandoned, a Group Creditor Claim and any associated DOCA Creditor Entitlements (if any) to which it is entitled pursuant to this Deed, if and only to the extent that such Group Creditor Claim has been rejected by the Deed Administrators pursuant to Clause 6.5 (Claims Admission Notice) and is not (i) the subject of an appeal subject to Clause 6.6(b) or (c) (Rejected Claims), or (ii) the subject of a court proceedings subject to Clause 6.8 (Adjudication Claims that may be determined by a Court), following the expiry of the applicable deadline set out in the relevant clause.

 - (ii) each Holdback Creditor that has requested such information from the Deed Administrators in writing by the Record Date and the Holdco Agents of the EPM Entitlement that such Holdback Creditor would be entitled to receive on the Restructuring Effective Date assuming it was not a Holdback Creditor and had complied with the Initial Distribution Requirements

No other Property of the Deed Company or each other Group DOCA Company will be available to pay such claims.
- (b) Subject to Clauses 9.3 (Distributions to Capital Markets Trustees) and 9.4 (Distributions to Certificate Holders), each Group Creditor's DOCA Creditor Entitlements are to be determined by the Deed Administrators by reference to the Group Creditor Claims (excluding AFF Waived Claims and Intra-Group Claims).
- (c) Group Creditors are only entitled to receive the DOCA Creditor Entitlements that are declared by the Deed Administrators and the Deed Company and provided for in this Deed and the Related DOCAs and the Restructuring Documents, and the right of recourse in respect of each Group Creditor Claim is solely limited to such DOCA Creditor Entitlements.
